CCCC Members,

Now that we have had a few days back above freezing and currently all the snow in our area is gone, the thought of getting out on the road for more fun adventures in our Corvette is becoming more real. Earlier in the week I passed someone out enjoying their C7, and although I was a little jealous it will still be a few more weeks before I head out on what is left of our Michigan roads.

In February many of us shared a nice breakfast together on Valentines Day and I am looking forward to the Region Banquet the end of March. Take a few minutes to check out the calendar of events on our website or in the newsletter. Starting in April there are events going on most every weekend including our annual Bowling Challenge on the 12th, our Top Ten Awards dinner on the 18th, and the Vermontville Syrup Festival Parade on the 25th.

Whenever you decide to get your Corvette back on the road make sure to give it a good once over to check fluid levels, tire condition, and just the general condition of anything that could cause your first trip to be less than enjoyable.

Stay safe and warm, and I look forward to seeing all of you soon,

Tom Faupel, President
Capital City Corvette Club

Letter from the Editor

Spring does not usually arrive all at once around here. It shows up in moments. For me, one of those moments came a few weeks ago when I drove my Corvette to our February board meeting. It was not quite driving season. The weather was still undecided. But after a long winter, turning the key felt like a signal.

Not that spring had arrived, but that it was getting closer. There is something about that first drive of the year. The sound feels a little louder. The road feels a little smoother. Even a short trip feels like an event. I may have been the only one who drove that night, but I have a feeling I was not the only one thinking about it.

This is the time of year when anticipation starts doing its work. Behind the scenes, our board members and volunteers are already building the season. Dates are being set. Plans are being finalized. Ideas are being shared. A lot of what makes this club run smoothly happens long before we line up our cars anywhere. It is steady, thoughtful work and it deserves appreciation.

March is that bridge month. Garage doors start opening more often. Battery tenders come off. The phrase just a quick drive returns to our vocabulary. Before long, those early morning breakfasts will include a few more Corvettes in the parking lot.

That short drive to a board meeting reminded me of something simple but important. The excitement does not fade with time. It waits. And every spring, it comes back just as strong. We are part of something that has lasted because people care enough to show up. To plan. To volunteer. To share stories. To keep the tradition moving forward one season at a time. That does not happen by accident.

Spring is coming. The roads will clear. The engines will warm up. The familiar sound of doors closing and keys turning will echo through garages across the area. Another season is in front of us. I cannot wait to enjoy it with all of you.
