

Most of you know, Daytona International Speedway is being completely re-paved due to chunks of asphalt coming up, even during the races. These are some incredible pictures of how to pave 2 ½ miles of 33 degree banked turns and long super stretches of strait-a-ways. Definitely, a very difficult task, but could you imagine the cost of the contract?

